

Outline of Literacy Narrative

1st Paragraph

- Introductory
- Background Information on my life
- The start of change in my life

2nd Paragraph

- Struggle with reading skills
- Frustration and desperation for change
- Addicted to Newspapers
- Resources to improve my reading

3rd Paragraph

- My tutor, Ms. Thompson
- Reading and evaluating various books (Harry Potter, Dr. Seuss, etc.)
- My mom and Ms. Thompson = Inspiration
- Compromising to embrace literacy

4th Paragraph

- Learning importance of literacy
- Literacy changed my life perceptions
- Community service activist

5th Paragraph

- Literacy change my life choices
- I was offered options through reading
- God chances of making something out of my life

- Thriving to Succeed to help people suffering

6th Paragraph

- Lack of Family support
- Being stuck in the commonplace of living in poverty
- Making something of my life

7th Paragraph

- Interest of Shakespeare's "Romeo and Juliet"
- Seeing myself in the story
- Suddenly understanding the way that Shakespeare was writing

8th Paragraph

- Reading and acting out "Romeo and Juliet" as a class
- Everyone understanding what they were reading
- Literacy has many different codes that are understood by many.
- Thriving and feeling great about oneself after overcoming something

Last Paragraphs

- Literacy involved in all we do on this earth
- Overcoming adversities
- Making through whatever comes your way
- Realizing that you are not the system and vice versa
- Learning from challenging experiences
- Making it to this point in your life